4038. Processing Time.

(a) The following time standards apply to the processing of applications for Certificates of Eligibility:

(1) Within 30 days after the date of receipt of an initial or renewal application, the Department shall either inform the applicant, in writing, that the application is complete and accepted for processing, or return the applications as deficient and specify what information is required.

(2)(A) Within 120 days from the date of receipt of a completed application for an initial Certificate of Eligibility, the Department shall conclude the processing of the application.

(B) Within 60 days from the date of receipt of a completed application for a renewal of a Certificate of Eligibility, the Department shall conclude the processing of the application.

(b)(1) The Department's minimum, median, and maximum times for processing an initial application, from the date of receipt of a completed application to the final determination are:

(A) Minimum time: 30 days

(B) Median time: 75 days

(C) Maximum time: 120 days

(2) The Department's minimum, median, and maximum times for processing a renewal application, from the date of receipt of a completed application to the final determination, are:

(A) Minimum time: 20 days

(B) Median time: 40 days

(C) Maximum time: 60 days

(c) If the Department fails to meet the time period for the processing of an initial or a renewal certificate, the applicant, within 30 days of the final decision granting or denying the application, may apply in writing for a full reimbursement of all application fees. The Department shall respond within 10 days of receipt of a request for reimbursement; and, if the reimbursement is denied by the Department, the applicant may directly appeal the denial, in writing, to the Attorney General. The appeal shall set forth a concise statement of facts and chronology of events regarding the application. An appeal concerning an application on which reimbursement is denied must be filed within 30 days of the date the applicant was notified of the denial. The appeal shall promptly be reviewed and a decision shall issue within 30 days after conducting any investigation of the matter which the Attorney General deems appropriate. This appeal shall be decided in the applicant's favor if the Department has exceeded its maximum time period for the issuance or denial of the certificate and the Department has failed to establish good cause for exceeding this time period. The Department shall include the information regarding this appeal process on all Certificate applications.
